PHOENIX JEJU Hotel & Resort, Jeju Island, Korea

Prof. Dr. Dongfeng Xue, FRSC

Chinese Academy of Sciences, Changchun, China

Dr. Dongfeng Xue is a professor of Materials Chemistry and Engineering, at State Key Laboratory of Rare Earth Resource Utilization, Changchun Institute of Applied Chemistry (CIAC), Chinese Academy of Sciences; Director of The Division of Rare Earth Crystals, The Chinese Society of Rare Earths; Fellow of the Royal Society of Chemistry (FRSC); Corresponding Member of the European Academy of Arts, Sciences and Humanities (Paris); Associate Editor of CrystEngComm. He received his Ph.D. degree in inorganic chemistry at CIAC in 1998. Following postdoctoral studies at Universität Osnabrück, University of Ottawa, National Institute for Materials Science in Tsukuba, he was promoted to a full professor in 2001 at Dalian University of Technology, China. In 2011, he returned to CIAC to assume his professorship in inorganic chemistry. His research interests focus on multiscale crystallization of inorganic matter for energy and optical applications. Professor Xue has published more than 900 papers, including 600 journal papers and three books, with the h-index of 64. Very recently, he was awarded ISMMM2019 Outstanding Contribution Award and IUPAC&NMS Distinguished Award 2019.
